

Today, February 1st 2005, I was listening to KGB FM radio in San Diego, when the morning show program, Kelly and Chainsaw, were discussion Keanu Reeves receiving his star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. They repeatedly called Keann Reeves a "homo". My children and I certainly do not appreciate listening to such filth on the radio at any time of the day. It's as bad as if someone called someone a "nigger" or "Jap". The radio has no place for such slurrs.
